

Grace Notes

Exodus 15:1-21

After Israel passes safely through the Red Sea, Moses breaks out in song, celebrating the power and greatness of God.

The theme of the song is found in verse 1—Praise God for his triumph!

In verses 2-18, Moses sings three stanzas. The first one looks backwards and praises God for what he did in the Red Sea (2-6). The second stanza is more theological and praises God for who he is (7-11). The third stanza looks to the future and praises God for what he will do in bringing Israel back to the Promised Land (12-18).

Following Moses' lead, his sister, Miriam, echoes with her chorus (19-21).

As Moses demonstrates, praising God for what he did in the past helps us trust him for what he will do in the future.

Praise God, he won! (1)

See what God did (2-6)

See who God is (7-11)

See what God will do (12-18)

Join the chorus (19-21)

Praising God for the past helps us trust him for the future
