

The God of Second Chances

Exodus 3:1-10

Like Moses, it is very easy to rely on our own strength, wisdom, and resources. We run ahead of God's plans and operate independently of him. When we do, we end up in trouble. Having failed, we want to crawl away and hide, preferably forever. We need to discover that God offers us a second chance.

☐ God often appears in the ordinary events of life (1-3)

☐ God gives us a fresh vision of himself (4-10)

- God speaks (4)
- God is holy (5)
- God keeps his promises (6)
- God is compassionate (7)
- God takes a personal interest in our lives (8-9)
- God is a redeemer (8)
- God invites us to join him in his work (10)

When God gives you a second chance, use the opportunity to know him better
